Photos, unique clip art and music personalizes your website like nothing else can. However, these files must be owned by you in order to be legally included on your web site. Photos taken personally by you are usable. If you need to obtain photos, clip art or music, you can easily browse through many stock photography, clip art or royalty-free music sites to obtain exactly what you want. You can either purchase the files yourself and send them to Dumas Web Design to use on your site or specify the ones you want us to purchase and include on your site.

As a Dumas Web Design client, you may use any file you find on www.clipart.com for no extra charge. Just note the item number of your desired file and it will be included. If you can't find the images you want on www.clipart.com, check out some of the most popular sites below:
